

I urge you to investigate Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. As a citizen I expect the FCC to promote fair and reasonable election coverage and not allow media corporations to promote their agendas.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.
Thank you. George Broyles
